BOARD MEMBER RESOLUTION FOR ACTION

Ms. Korenstein moved the following resolution in Celebration of Black History Month 2009:

Whereas, Black History Month is a national tradition originally established in 1976 in response to the inadequate and oftentimes biased depiction of black history and African American communities in history books and schools curricula of the era;

Whereas, The Governing Board of the Los Angeles Unified School District stated that the academic performance of African American students demands urgent action by the District;

Whereas, Current research supports the effectiveness of a culturally relevant educational approach to engaging and motivating higher academic performance in low-achieving students;

Whereas, Black History Month is a vehicle to promote cultural relevance in our schools and offers an excellent opportunity to focus the energy, attention, commitment, and action of the entire educational community on closing the achievement gap for African American students;

Whereas, We celebrate the election of this country’s first African American President, Barack Obama, and are reminded that our nation is now stronger and more hopeful because he has opened the doors for a new generation of leaders; and

Whereas, Black History Month is an opportunity for all students in the District to enrich their educational experience and to deepen their understanding of American history; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Governing Board of the Los Angeles Unified School District recognizes February as Black History Month; and be it finally

Resolved, That the Board directs the Superintendent to work with all schools of the District to recognize and celebrate Black History Month through culturally relevant activities and through in-depth discussions of historically relevant topics.

Ms. Galatzan seconded the motion.

Mr. Dan Alba from the District’s Human Relations Council addressed the Board.

After discussion and by general consent, the resolution was adopted.

INSTRUCTIONAL ITEMS

ENGLISH LEARNERS UPDATE

Opening remarks and an overview of the presentation were delivered by Dr. Judy Elliott, Chief Academic Officer. She also introduced Ms. Mary Campbell, Administrator, Language Acquisition Branch.

Ms. Campbell began the presentation summarizing student achievement data. In order for the District to exit Program Improvement, all subgroups must meet the Annual Yearly Progress (AYP) indicators in English Language Arts and math. Annual progress for English Learners is measured by Annual Measurable Achievement Objectives (AMAO). The District did not meet these targets.

She discussed collaborative data analysis and instructional planning. She reviewed the roles of the Local District Superintendents and Central Offices in the development of an action plan.

Ms. Campbell concluded the presentation with a discussion of next steps.

Ms. Campbell and Dr. Elliott responded to questions from Board Members regarding content areas, instructional delivery, best practices, strategy, prioritization, resources, tracking of students, instructional needs, agendizing items, disaggregated data, No Child Left Behind, accountability, and redesignation.
